Obituary

DEBORAH JANETTE CRAIG, daughter of the late Dr. Thomas E. Craig and Mrs. Emma Craig, departed this life after a brief illness on Tuesday, January 18, 1994 at Mercy Hospital.

Deborah was educated in the public schools of Charlotte, North Carolina, attended Winston-Salem Teachers College and graduated with a B.S. degree from Johnson C. Smith University — further studies were done at New York University. She was a retired elementary school teacher in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System where she taught for many years, a member of the National Education Association and the North Carolina Retired Teachers Association. As an educator in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, Deborah is remembered by scores of co-workers, friends and former students.

Deborah was a charter member of Beta Omicron Sigma Chapter, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Modernettes Club, Second Ward High School Alumni Association, Squaws Club and the Oaklawn-McCrorey Heights Community Association. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, a member of Missionary Circle No. 4 and Golden Age Club.

Deborah is survived by: two sisters, Ms. Katie L. Craig and Mrs. Bernice C. Barnes of Charlotte, North Carolina; two nephews, Eugene Barnes and Phillip Barnes of Charlotte; one grand nephew, Eugene Barnes; and a host of other relatives and friends.

A TRIBUTE TO DEBORAH

SPECIAL is a word that is used to describe something one of a kind or a person who spreads love with a smile or a kind gesture.

SPECIAL describes people who act from the heart and keep in mind the hearts of others.

SPECIAL applies to something that is admired and precious and can not be replaced.

Janice Mae McKenzie
