

Just Beautiful !!!

What makes me weak? My fears.
What makes me whole? My God.
What keeps me standing? My faith.
What makes me compassionate? My selflessness.
What makes me honest? My integrity.
What sustains my mind? My quest for knowledge.
What teaches me all lessons? My mistakes.
What lifts my head high? My pride, not arrogance.
What if I can't go on? Not an option.
What makes me victorious? My courage to climb.
What makes me competent? My confidence.
What makes me sensual? My insatiable essence.
What makes me beautiful? My everything.
What makes me a woman? My heart.
Who says I need love? I do.
What empowers me? My God & me.
Who Am I? I Am A STRONG CHRISTIAN WOMAN!

The Obituary

Sula Henderson Page, born to the late Reverend Dr. Elo and Doris Stephens Henderson in Charlotte, NC, April 16, 1947, departed this earthly place on Friday, April 10, 2015.

Because of her keen interest in music, at an early age, Sula became a music enthusiast earning many awards, which included an international summer music jaunt to Rome, Italy, as a Beckwith School of Music graduate. She was a graduate of West Charlotte High School, class of 1965. After graduation she attended North Carolina Central University, Durham, NC, Juilliard School of Music, New York, NY, and Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, NC where she earned a BS degree in Psychology.

Sula was a woman of elegance and class. She made friends easily and nourished those friendships through school affiliation, music, dance, community, religion and travel. She had a real zest for life, a magnetic personality and charm. Sula loved music, dancing and traveling with friends and family. She loved people and she never met a stranger. She always maintained a sweet and sophisticated demeanor that won the trust and hearts of many. Her gift of style, her care and concern for others, her laughter, dancing and jovial spirit will never be forgotten.

Sula was an active life member of Charlotte Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated.

She met and married the love of her life, William Page, on June 6, 1981. Their lives together have been very loving and productive. They enjoyed numerous trips throughout the country.

Her religious affiliation had been a life-long Presbyterian and she was currently a member of First United Presbyterian Church, where she served as a Deacon, a member of the Deborah Circle of Presbyterian Women, and has contributed to various other committees. She was the founder and coordinator of the United in Jazz Concerts held at First United Presbyterian Church. A woman of faith, Sula shaped her spirituality by her tireless Christian example, and through various church prayer groups and activities.

Her professional background included administrative duties for the Catawba Presbyterian Administration Unit, Personal Banker at Wachovia Bank and Centura Bank, where she retired in 2008.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband and best friend, William F. Page, III; children, Yvette, Leslie (Kevin) and William IV of Harrisburg, PA; grandchildren, Jazmin, Paige, and La'el of Harrisburg, PA; uncle, Dr. Clarence Stephens of Potsdam, NY; a sister-at-heart and cousin by birth, Daisy Titus of Huntersville, NC; and a host of relatives and friends.
