

First appeared in city directory:

1015 Fairfield Street no longer exists. It was almost certainly demolished to build the First Baptist West fellowship hall, 1980s.

Building permit(s):Fairfield-1015-permit-a

Date issued: January 18, 1963

Owner: Mary Heaven Redemptorist Retreat House

Contractor: Harry Setzer

Estimated cost: $7000

Other permit info: Remodel interior and add two baths, partition rooms in basement.

Fairfield-1015-b

Date issued: Jan 29 and Feb 1, 1963

Owner: Redemptionist Fathers of NC (Catholic Fathers Home)

Contractor: Standard Plumbing / Hixon electric

Estimated cost:

Other permit info:

[This is for house at Washington Av corner?]

Fairfield-1015-permit-c

Date issued: July 30, 1958

Owner: WH Habbs [?]

Contractor: Adkins Electric

Estimated cost:

Other permit info: install wiring

Fairfield-1015-permit

Date issued: October 20, 1953

Owner: Catholic Church

Contractor: H & S Lumber

Estimated cost:

Other permit info: re-roof