Obituary

Mrs. Ruby Barr Martin was born in Columbia, South Carolina, as the youngest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Barr. Her childhood was spent in Columbia, where she attended the public schools. She later, with her family, moved to New York City where she attended and completed a business course at a Manhattan school of business.

At the completion of the business course, she gained employment at Domnick and Domnick Brokers, Wall Street in New York City. She remained there for several years.

On August 14, 1920, she became the bride of J. Dwight Martin and in later years, they moved to Charlotte, North Carolina.

She has served on the staff of Albany State College, Albany, Georgia; Barber-Scotia College, Concord, North Carolina and Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina. At her passing she was a member of the staff of Barber-Scotia College.

She graduated summa cum laude from Johnson C. Smith University and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

She was very active in Seventh Street Presbyterian Church and Sunday School where she was teacher of the Volunteer Class for several years. Her affiliations consist of membership in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, The Links, Inc., Auxiliary to Charlotte Medical Society and other organizations.

Mrs. Ruby Martin completed a full and wholesome life on December 19, 1959, at 11:45 A.M.

She is survived by her husband, Dr. J. Dwight Martin and three sisters, Mrs. Ollie Queen of Bronx, New York, Mrs. Corine Oliver and Mrs. Nellie Neely, both of Brooklyn, New York and several nieces and nephews.
