Obituary

MRS. HENRIETTA TRAWICK NORRIS, daughter of the late Lloyd and Bessie Trawick, entered eternal peace on January 10, 1995.

A native of Hedland, Alabama, Mrs. Norris completed her formal education at Jackson State College in Jackson, Mississippi.

She was married for many years to the late Hubert Norris. Mrs. Norris spent many years teaching elementary education at both Fayetteville State University and Johnson C. Smith University.

After retiring from teaching, she worked tirelessly for the church she loved so dearly, Memorial Presbyterian Church. She served as a Church Elder and Director of Day Care. She was also a member of the Choir, Retiree Fellowship and Bereaved Family Service Committee.

In addition to her church activities, she was a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She was Past President of the Literary Art Club.

Mrs. Norris will be missed by her nieces, Joye Trawick and Brenda Burrell; her grandniece, Bailey Burrell; grandnephew, Robert DeCosey; numerous relatives and a host of friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set me free,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss Me But Let Me Go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds
Miss Me But Let Me Go.
