Lead, kind - ly Light, a - mid th' en - cir - cling gloom, Lead Thou me on;
The night is dark, and I am far from home; Lead Thou me on:
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see the dis - tant scene— one step e - nough for me.

So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on,
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and tor - rent, till The night is gone;
And with the morn those an - gel fa - ces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost a - while. A-men.

We sincerely thank all for the many kindnesses extended during the illness and death of our father and husband. Your sympathetic understanding, prayers, and assistance has indeed been helpful. May God bless all of you.

THE MORELAND FAMILY

Obituary

GEORGE WILEY CLINTON MORELAND, SR., son of the late Reverend Dr. John F. and Grace Scott Moreland, was born in St. Louis, Missouri. His early education was obtained in the public schools of Charlotte, the Emmanuel Lutheran School, Greensboro, North Carolina, Biddle University, Charlotte, and Livingstone College, Salisbury, North Carolina.

He was an ardent reader with a keen business mind. While a student at Emmanuel Lutheran School, he served as Business Manager. His interest and enthusiasm in reading led him to be known as a scholar of the Bible and other famous classic literary works. It was always a pleasure to be in his company and share with him his love and deep understanding of various literary works.

He had a broad knowledge of finance and home construction. He became a real estate agent in 1925. He was known for his creativity in exterior and interior decorating. He received a certificate of commendation as a First Class Master Decorator from the United States Government, Newport News, Virginia.

As a son of a minister, he was born and reared in a Christian environment. He worshipped with his family at the Grace A.M.E. Zion Church where he was a member. Following several invitations to speak to the men's Sunday School class at Seventh Street Presbyterian Church, he felt his knowledge and interpretation of the Bible would be best served through instructing the Progressive Men's Class, thereby he united with this congregation. He was a member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

He is survived by: a wife, Margaret Turman Moreland; one son, George Wiley Clinton Moreland, Jr.; one daughter, Margaret Carolyne Person; one granddaughter, Allison Krisna Person; one grandson, Donald Lewis Person, Jr.; one daughter-in-law, Emma Gillespie Moreland; one son-in-law, Donald Lewis Person; one brother, Clarence Earl Moreland; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
