God's Eternal Day

end too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus,
this should make you glad.
waste your time in grieving,
No need to feel distress.
as tired of life's frustration and had to get some rest.
t vex yourself with question,
Or try to reason why;
ife here for me has ended,
It came my time to die.
n't lose the love I gave you,
Feel it with your care.
Grow it with devotion
nd spread it everywhere.
n't fret because my leaving Came in such a way,
e'll have another meeting
In God's Eternal Day.

Obituary

Eddieola Alexander Williams joined her parents and older siblings in God eternal grace on Thursday, September 22, 2011.

Daughter of the late Creola and Richard Alexander, Mrs. Williams was a life-long resident of Charlotte, NC. She graduated from Second Ward high School and received both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Home Economics from North Carolina Central University.

Mrs. Williams retired from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg County School system as a Home Economic teacher dedicated to making a difference in the lives of her students.

Until she became ill, she was an active member of Memorial Presbyterian Church serving in Missionary Circle Number One as well as on the Hospitality Committee and a distinguished member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. She lived a life marked by generosity and service. One of her most memorable sayings was, "If someone asks for a dollar, give him two dollars. People in pain generally ask for less than they need." She cared for ill and aging family members, community members, and friends with tenderness and empathy. After the untimely death of her mother, she became like a second mother to her younger brothers and made sure they had what they needed to be successful in their lives. Eddieola was loyal, industrious and self-sacrificing. She will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Williams is survived by her three younger brothers: Marcellus Alexander (Agnes); Raymond J. Alexander (Hazeline); and Oscar Alexander (Rhett); two nephews, Raymond W. Alexander (Inez); and Brian Alexander (Michelle); two nieces, Deremia A. Witherspoon (Willie); and Renee A. Craft (Howard); as well as one great-niece, Ramine Alexander and three great-nephews, James Alexander, Alexster Witherspoon and Bakari Craft.

Acknowledgement

We the family of Eddieola Williams would like to thank her caregivers for their kindness and love. May God's blessing be with you.
