Obituary

MRS. ROBERTA DOUGLASS THOMPCKINS of Brentwood, Tennessee, the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Douglass of Charlotte, North Carolina, passed on May 21, 1991, in Nashville.

Mrs. Thompkins was a retired Charlotte-Mecklenburg School teacher, having taught at Fairview and Marie Davis Schools. She was a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University and Columbia University.

Mrs. Thompkins was married to the late Dr. Edwin Thompkins, Dean of Theology at Johnson C. Smith University. She, during her lifetime, was a member of Seventh Street, J.C. Smith University, and Memorial Presbyterian Churches.

She was a dedicated member of the Charlotte Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the Priscilla Literary Club, Just Us and the Moles, Inc.

Mrs. Thompkins is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Stephanie M. Bridgwaters and son-in-law, Thomas; two granddaughters, Brittany Tess and Devon Kaila; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Taylor of Tarboro, North Carolina and Mrs. Sadie Moore of Asheville, North Carolina, and nieces and nephews.

— In Appreciation —

We shall always remember with deep gratitude your comforting expressions of sympathy extended to us during our bereavement; with special thanks to the many friends and sorors for their continued support and encouragement during her long illness.
