OBITUARY

Mrs. Bernice Martin Bullock was born in Charlotte, North Carolina, February 5, 1903, the daughter of the late Dr. James D. Martin and Mrs. Catherine D. Martin. She was educated in the public schools of Charlotte, at Scotia Seminary, Concord, North Carolina, and at Johnson C. Smith University where she graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor Of Science Degree in Mathematics and Social Studies. She married the late Paul H. Richardson and of this union there are three daughters, Dr. Annie L. Richardson, Mrs. Catherine R. Hawkins and Mrs. Emily R. Ivory. In 1956 she married Lawrence H. Bullock of Asheville, North Carolina, who passed on May 27, 1967.

Mrs. Bullock worked as House Mother at Sleighton Farm School, Darling, Pennsylvania; as Assistant Dean of Women at Bethune Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Florida; and as Cashier in the dining hall of Johnson C. Smith University. From 1956 until her retirement in 1965, she served as acting dietitian at Johnson C. Smith University.

Mrs. Bullock was a member of Seventh Street Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, North Carolina. She served as treasurer of this church for ten years and was elected its first female elder. She was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and until her death was Tamiochous of Alpha Lambda Omega Chapter of Charlotte.

In later years she declined in health as a result of several operations and on June 30, 1967, she succumbed to the last one. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Means of Paducah, Kentucky, and Mrs. Louise White of Asheville, North Carolina; two brothers, Dr. James Dwight Martin of Charlotte and Mr. Beauregard L. Martin of Chicago, Illinois; three daughters, Dr. Annie L. Richardson of Raleigh, North Carolina, Mrs. Catherine Hawkins, and Mrs. Emily Ivory of Charlotte; seven grandchildren and three neices.
