

POEM

*Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.*

*Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.*

*A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.*

OBITUARY

MRS. MARGRATHA CHAMBERS RANN was born and reared in Winston-Salem, N. C., and entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, February 14, 1984. She was the only child of the late Maggie and Gus Chambers.

All of her early school education was received in Winston-Salem, finishing Columbian Heights High School in 1929. She received the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1934 from Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina.

During her working years she taught in the public schools of Winston-Salem and Charlotte. For a short period she served as librarian at Barber-Scotia College in Concord, N. C.

Early in her life she made a commitment to Christ and became a faithful member of the Methodist Church in Winston-Salem, N. C. When she moved to Charlotte she joined the Biddleville Presbyterian Church now Memorial Presbyterian Church, where she remained a loyal and consecrated member until her death. During her church life she worked and served as a member of Circle Number One, a member of the church Nominating Committee, and a member of the Trustee Board.

Her love of people was satisfied through her work with the Y.W.C.A. where she served at one time on the Board of Directors.

He warm, fun-loving personality made her many friends. She enjoyed them in her clubs — the Moles, Holidays, Emanons, Monday Niters Bridge Club and the Eightsome.

She is survived by: a son, Emery L. Rann III; a grandson Eric Coles of Washington, D. C.; a cousin, Gus Beadie Chambers, Jr.; and nieces Margratha Chambers and Mamie Chambers.

In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.
