Obituary

Grace Elizabeth Lane Wyche was born to the union of Graham and Eliza Lane in Raleigh, NC on March 8, 1924. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by 3 sisters and four brothers.

At an early age, she relocated to the home of her aunt and uncle in Philadelphia, PA. Shortly thereafter, she moved to Raleigh, NC to make her home with Miss Dorothy Lane, affectionately known as "Cousin Dorothy". While there she attended the public schools and was an outstanding student of Washington High School.

Grace attended the Barber-Scotia Junior College in Concord, NC. After completing this course of study she was accepted and graduated from Shaw University in Raleigh, NC with a degree in Early Childhood Education. She later completed a Masters Degree in Library Science at Columbia University, NY.

At a Sunday School Convention in Oxford, NC, she met a young attorney, Thomas H. Wyche of Charlotte, NC. He became the love of her life, and they were married more than 50 years. To this loving union was born one beloved daughter, Gwendolyn. They made their home in Charlotte. Grace Lane Wyche was an active member of First United Presbyterian Church, where she served as a Sunday School Superintendent, and as a member of the Deacon Board. In later years, she joined her neighbor/friend in Wednesday Bible Study Group at Walls Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church. She was a member of numerous organizations including Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Priscilla Literary and Arts Club, The Young at Heart Club, The Modernttes, Les Pierettes, Shelved Librarians and Pokeno Club.

She retired after 40 years as a Librarian in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System. Grace Lane Wyche was preceded in death by her husband, Attorney Thomas H. Wyche; her long-time care taker, the late Matthew L. Bailey.

Fond memories shall always be cherished by her daughter, Gwendolyn (Randy) Harris; granddaughters, Marielle Harris, Mariah Harris and Miranda Harris; cousins, Norma Haywood and Audrey Wall of Raleigh, NC; nephew, Robert Allen Lane of Washington, DC, nieces Dr. Deborah Johnson, Teresa Watson and Onnie Houston god children, Jonathan Sanders, Vivian Nivens and Juanita Eison. Alicia Wakefield, Sharlene Abbott many other relatives, god children, neighbors and friends.

Thank you to a special friend and neighbor June Durett, your loving kindness sustained our "Amazing Grace". Our deep appreciation to Mrs. Mattie Doby, Mrs. Vivian Walker and Bernard Yeldell your tender support will always be remembered.
