Obituary

Carolyn Welborne Wyche, the youngest of six children of the late Scott Terry and Eura "Shuie" Henderson Welborne, was born in Salisbury, North Carolina on June 17, 1924. She passed into eternal life on Saturday, May 8, 2010 in Charlotte, North Carolina.

She attended the Salisbury schools and graduated from Price High School. She later moved to Charlotte to attend Good Samaritan Hospital's Nurse Training Program, from which she graduated in 1944. During her career, she worked at Good Samaritan and Charlotte Memorial (Carolina's Medical Center). Carolyn later left hospital nursing to work in the Title One program for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools. She worked for C.M.S. as a Certified Health Occupation Teacher until her retirement in 1987 from Independence High School.

In 1944, she married the late Rudolph Melville Wyche, MD. They enjoyed nearly 30 years of marriage until his passing in 1973.

She was a member of Charlotte Chapter Moles; Charlotte Medical Auxiliary; Good Samaritan Alumni Association, where she initiated school reunions; Chi Eta Phi National Sorority; Holidays Bridge Club and the Monday Nighters Bridge Club. She enjoyed playing golf and often outplayed her husband and the other men on the golf course. Her other favorite pastimes were dancing and playing card games. She had a love for cats and the neighborhood strays called her house their home.

She was a faithful member of First Baptist Church-West for over sixty years, where she served on the First Aid Committee, now known as the Health and Wellness Ministry.

Along with her husband, she was predeceased by her parents and her siblings: Ibbey Welborne Pitts, Scott Terry Welborne and Robert Welborne.

Carolyn is survived by two daughters: Alice Wyche (Anthony) Hurley of Columbia, South Carolina; and Fannye Dianne Wyche of Charlotte, North Carolina; two sisters, Barbara Davis of Charlotte, North Carolina and Fannye Kelsey of Salisbury, North Carolina; three grandchildren, Brian Wyche (Monica) Hurley, MD, Kelly Hurley (Curtis) Osborne, and Michelle Hurley (George) Johnson, Esq.; five great-grandchildren, Chelsea Grace, Johnanthony and Aliece Hurley, Rachel and Ryann Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Goodnight sweet Carolyn...and flights of angels sing thee to thy rest.
