Thursday, October 16, 1975 at 4:00 P.M.

OBITUARY

Robert Pharoah Wyche, Jr., older son of the late Dr. R. P. Wyche, Sr. and the late Mrs. Sarah Lang Wyche, was born and reared and educated in Charlotte, North Carolina. He was graduated from Johnson C. Smith University in the class of 1938.

He joined the Seventh Street, now First United Presbyterian Church at an early age under the pastorate of his father, the late Dr. R. P. Wyche, who served as pastor of this church for 54 years.

Robert Pharoah was a loyal member of his church and church choir.

He served in the United States Army and was a veteran of World War II.

He resided with his brother and family.

He was very understanding, compassionate, quiet, and loving. Those who knew him loved him.

He departed this life on Monday, October 13, 1975 in the Veterans Hospital in Salisbury, North Carolina.

He leaves to mourn their loss: one brother, Attorney Thomas H. Wyche; a niece, Gwendolyn and a sister-in-law, Grace Lane Wyche, and a host of other relatives and friends.

"When you were born you wept
And all around you smiled
So live that when you die
All around you will weep
And you will smile"

By R. P.-1975

The Family wishes to thank our may friends for their acts of kindness shown to them.

Your generosity and God's love has lessened our burden of sorrow and will in time, if not cure, make our burden of grief easier to bear.
